Accommodation

The International Office will arrange on-campus accommodation for all participants. The office will keep you informed on any updates through email or our websites after your payment is confirmed. We will do our best to provide a safe, comfortable and memorable stay for you during the camp.

Food & Transport

The International Office will provide welcome dinner, tea reception, and three meals every day for all the participants in CPU cafeteria.

We are not responsible for arranging transportation for participants' arrivals and departures of Nanjing. Participants are highly encouraged to arrive at Nanjing Lukou International Airport and confirm their travel schedule as early as possible so that pick-up service can be provided timely.

A Reception counter will be set up at Nanjing Lukou International Airport and chartered buses will be available to take all the participants to CPU for registration and check-in.

Visa

All participants must hold a valid passport. Citizens of certain countries do require a Visa to come to China. Each participant is responsible for applying for and obtaining a visa at the nearest Embassy or Consulate of the People's Republic of China. Contact information for Chinese embassies around the world can be found at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (http://www.fmprc.gov.cn/mfa_eng/wjb_663304/zwjg_665342/2490_665344/).

Travel Insurance

All participants are strongly advised and required to purchase Travel Insurance before coming to China. We would advise you to purchase insurance which covers but not limited by:

- Lost Luggage
- Sudden Trip Cancellation
- Medical Expenses Incurred during your trip
- Travel Delay not caused by you (including natural disaster)
